LISTEN AND DO

Thirty-two Recorded Lessons in Pre-Reading Skills

BLAIR • PLISKA • YETHS Edited by Paul McKee

Provides aural-visual instruction, practice, and review of the vitally important technique introduced in Getting Ready to Read — the use of oral context simultaneously with letter-sound associations to unlock strange words.

Supplies all Listen and Do materials in one convenient set —— including sixteen ten-inch L.P. records, one lesson per side; thirty-two Duplicating Masters for reproducing pupils' worksheets; and a Teacher's Guide that includes lesson plans, full-size reproductions of the worksheets, and a key to all worksheet activities.

Listen and Do lessons can be correlated directly with Getting Ready to Read, or used independently.
